PRICES

All our prices are in euros, exclusive of VAT. Prices indicated in the catalogue and on our website have been established based on the rates in our possession at the time of the stay. The customer expressly acknowledges having read information related to the rates of the trip that he chose, through documentation and technical data sheets. We mention in our fact sheets what is included and what is not.

In the absence of stated otherwise, the prices do not include:

- Residual deposit for your boat
- Clothing of the participants

FORMALITIES

Each participant is required to comply with the regulations of police formalities and health. The information contained in our brochures and Internet sites are provided for information only and cannot engage our responsibility. It is up to the customer to inquire personally of the police formalities and health in force. Failure to comply with these regulations means the sole responsibility of the participant who will be responsible for the costs.

CHARACTERISTIC OF THE EVENT

The STB reserves the right to expel any member whose behavior could endanger the safety of the group or the well-being of the other participants. This is also valid for reckless personal behaviour, voluntary departure or failure of our programs and our recommendations. No refund or compensation will be paid. The STB undertakes to secure the event by professional medial support made up of doctors, nurses and by rescue workers.

CANCELLATIONFrom you:

Any cancellation or changes before departure must reach us by registered letter with acknowledgement of receipt. The date of receipt of this letter is the date which will be used as the date of cancellation for the calculation of the costs. The retained amount is calculated according to the following scale:

- Before 1st January 2018: full refund
- After 1st January 2018: withheld from payments.

Failure to show up:

Your failure to show up or delay to the meeting don't open right to any refund.

Interruption of the stay:

Any voluntary or involuntary interruption on your part opens no right to any refund, as well as an exclusion

From us:

The contract between carriers with their customers is governed by the Warsaw convention and is replicated on the airplane tickets.

Article 9 states: "the carrier is committed to do his best to carry the passenger and baggage with reasonable dispatch. Schedules shown on airline tickets or elsewhere are not guaranteed and are not part of this contract. The carrier may, without notice, substitute for other carriers, use other airplanes; he may change or remove the stops planned on the ticket in case of necessity. Schedules may be changed without notice. The carrier is not responsible of the connections." We can only also submit to this international convention.

- Hours: in case of schedule changes or routes planes, layovers, delays, missed connections, flight cancellations, we cannot be held responsible, we act as an intermediary. Ditto if you change of departure or arrival (e.g. Orly/Roissy) airport.
- Baggage: in the event of loss, delay of delivery or damage to your luggage, the company is solely responsible. It is up to the passenger to make the necessary arrangements directly with the company. No complaint shall be received by the STB in this regard.
- Airport convocation: the time that is set is determined by the airline. We ask you to be exactly on time. A late submission can be considered as no-show) and non-refundable.
- Delivery to the airport: travel by train or plane to your international flight connection, we advise strongly against non-exchangeable or non-refundable tickets. Any expenses related to the loss of these tickets cannot be supported by the STB.

Transparency degree

In accordance with Decree No. 2006-315 of 17 March 2006, customer is informed of the identity of the carrier contract or in fact, to achieve the flight bought. The seller will inform the customer of the identity of the actual airline that will ensure the flight(s). In case of change of carrier, the customer will be informed by the contracting carrier or the organizer of the event, by all appropriate means, as he knows.

INSURANCES

According to regulations, the STB will contract an insurance covering professional responsibilities, but it cannot be a substitute for your personal liability. In addition, it is necessary to have a comprehensive guarantee covering the costs of cancellation - repatriation - illness - travel accident - trip interruption (typical example: Mondial Assistance, Amex...). It is yours to check risks for which you are covered before your registration.

RESPONSABILITY

Given the special nature of the event and in accordance with article 23 of the Act of 13 July 1992, the STB cannot be held responsible and liable for any compensation in case of cancellation or change of dates, times or planned routes, for the following reasons:

- Perilous circumstances involving the safety of the customer.
- Case of force majeure associated with prefectural, governmental or administrative decisions.
- Unexpected events before or during the stay (weather, strike, political crisis, delay in transport, theft or loss of luggage, ticket or identification or any other essential official document).
- Delay of the customer and no-show at the meeting time.

The STB cannot be held responsible for the incidents, accidents or injuries that could result from imprudent personal initiative or of failure to comply with the instructions of the organizer or the head of the crew. The STB reserves the right to interrupt the stay of a customer whose attitude could be dangerous. The additional costs incurred by these facts will be payable locally by the client.

DISPUTES

- In case of a claim relating to the event, a registered letter with acknowledgement of receipt, accompanied by supporting documents within a period of one month after the date of the return should be addressed to the STB.
- In case of dispute, only the Court of Mahé / Seychelles is responsible.
